

SPSO decision report

Case: 201607001, Scottish Prison Service
Sector: Scottish Government and devolved administration
Subject: policy/administration
Decision: not duly made or withdrawn, no recommendations

Summary

Mr C complained that the Scottish Prison Service (SPS) failed to take reasonable action in relation to his access to home leave. He was also dissatisfied with the way in which the SPS dealt with his complaint. We did not reach a decision on Mr C's complaint as he was released from prison and did not provide a forwarding address or confirm that he wished us to continue investigating his complaint.
